WELCOME! So glad to share this Sunday with you!

Today at St. Peter

Today we will be receiving the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion. Here at St. Peter, we believe that we will receive God's Grace of forgiveness, assurance for eternal life and spiritual strength from this meal. If you would like to receive communion today, we ask that you first, confess that you are a sinner. Secondly, believe that Jesus is your Savior and that His presence is in this wonderful precious meal.

We ask that youth attend a two-year Bible Study called Confirmation before they partake in Holy Communion. Children and Youth are welcome to come up and receive a blessing. If you have any questions about this meal, Pastor Tim would love to sit down and discuss it with you.
